Youth receive assistance with high school completion, enrollment in college or certification programs, basic skills tutoring, credit recovery, and work readiness training.

Program participants may also have the opportunity to build their work history through paid work experience. The training component offers youth a glimpse into the real world requirements, challenges and opportunities of the workforce. Youth are placed at job sites and work alongside their staff to gain invaluable workplace experience.

The program offers numerous opportunities for youth to explore career options and assists youth with getting started in desired career field. Pre-apprenticeships, job shadowing, paid internships and on-the-job training, which provides training reimbursement dollars to employers, are just a few examples of program benefits. Y.O.U. currently offers this program in Kalamazoo, St. Joseph, and Branch counties

Resources for Animals

- Provider: Animal Meals on Wheels
Address: 3625 Lark Dr.
Kalamazoo, MI 49008
Phone: 269-978-3998
Website: <http://www.manta.com/c/mmsm76z/animals-meals-on-wheels>
Services: Is an all volunteer organization. Everything we do is to prevent pets from being taken from their beloved families and either "put to sleep" or put into over-crowded shelters. They started 17 years ago with one cat and one senior. They were the first organization to offer this type of service in West Michigan and still are the only one offering this kind of services. They provide and deliver pet food and supplies FREE. They help with cost of spay and neuters and provide transportation to and from our client's vet of choice. They are a pet food (supplies too) based organization. They receive very little cash and put 99% of what we receive into the service the donor intended.
- Provider: Animal Rescue
Address: 219 Peekstock
Kalamazoo, MI 49001
Phone: 269-492-1010
Website: <http://www.animalrescueproject.org/>
