This map shows insurance coverage for individuals of all ages by census tract. The areas with the lowest percentage of insured individuals are in the city of Kalamazoo and surrounding townships, including Oshtemo and Comstock. Within the city, the neighborhoods with the lowest percentage of insured people are the Central Business District, Edison, Vine, and Southside.
This map shows insurance coverage for white individuals. The area with lowest proportion of white individuals with health insurance is in the City of Kalamazoo, in the Northside, Central Business District, and northern Edison neighborhoods.
This map shows insurance coverage for black individuals. The areas with lowest proportion of black individuals with health insurance are in the City of Kalamazoo in the northern section of the Edison neighborhood and in Pavilion and Prairie Ronde townships.
This map shows insurance coverage for Hispanic individuals. The area with lowest proportion of Hispanic individuals with health insurance are in the city of Kalamazoo and in Oshtemo and Pavilion townships.
This map shows insurance coverage for those at or below 138% of the federal poverty level. The areas with the lowest insurance coverage for these individuals are in eastern Texas Township and Prairie Ronde Township.

Data Source:
United States Census Bureau, American Community Survey, 2016 5-year estimates