

County Vaccination Goal

The vaccination goal for the state of Michigan is to administer 4 million doses of influenza vaccine. The Kalamazoo County goal is 123,042 doses administered to county residents. During the past 2020-21 Flu Season, a total of 108,155 doses of vaccine were administered to Kalamazoo County residents for a coverage rate of 40%.

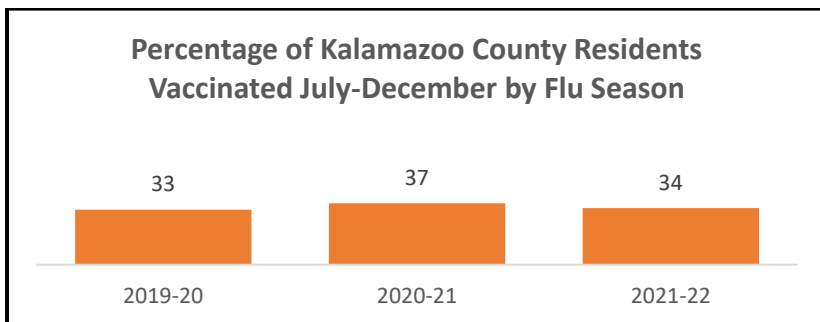

As of 01/01/2022:

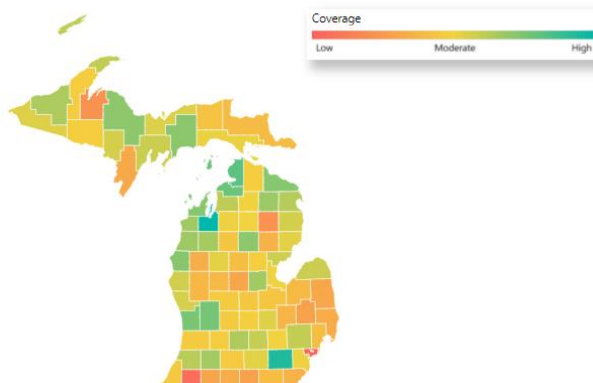

90,490 doses administered out of 123,042 dose goal
(at 74% of goal)

Current Coverage Rates by County

The map below shows the current vaccination coverage rate by county, a darker green color indicates a higher vaccination rate. These rates are based on the county population age 6 months or older. The current Kalamazoo County vaccination rate is 34% which is similar to the rate for same time period during the 2019-20 season. As of 1/1/22, the highest county vaccination rate in the state is Grand Traverse County (45%) followed by Washtenaw County at 43% (see table below). Additional data by county and for Michigan is located at the following link www.michigan.gov/flu

Influenza Vaccination Coverage Rate by County

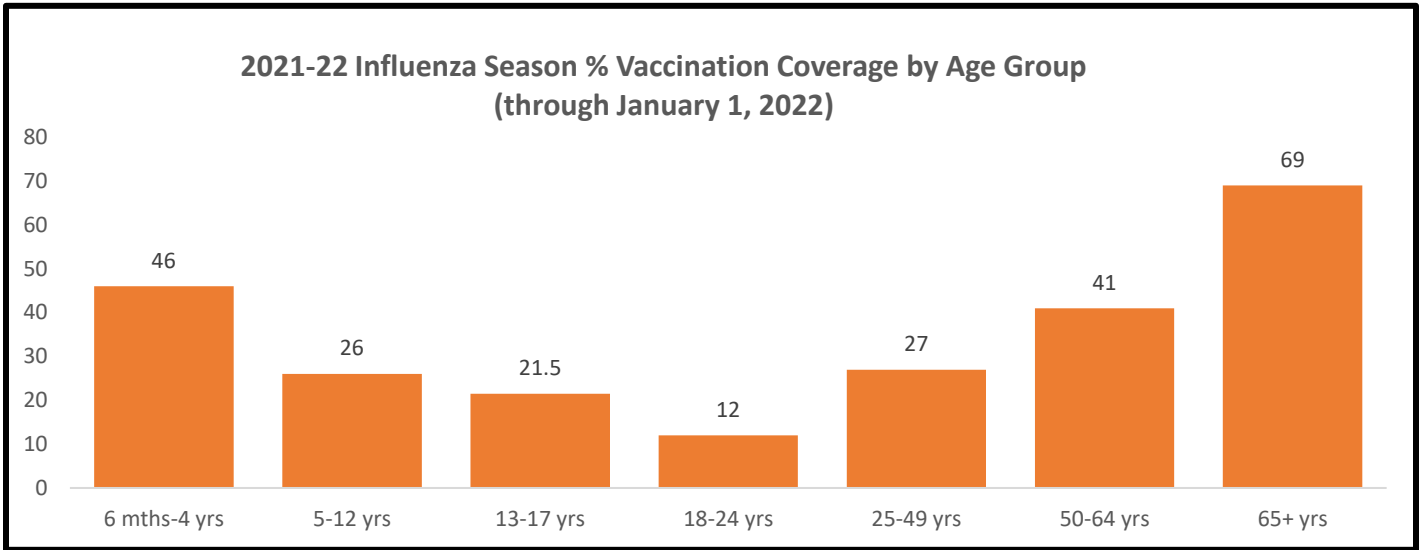

Top 5 Highest Coverage Rates

Grand Traverse	44.7%
Washtenaw	42.6%
Emmet	38.5%
Charlevoix	37.5%
Kent	36.8%

Current Coverage by Age Group

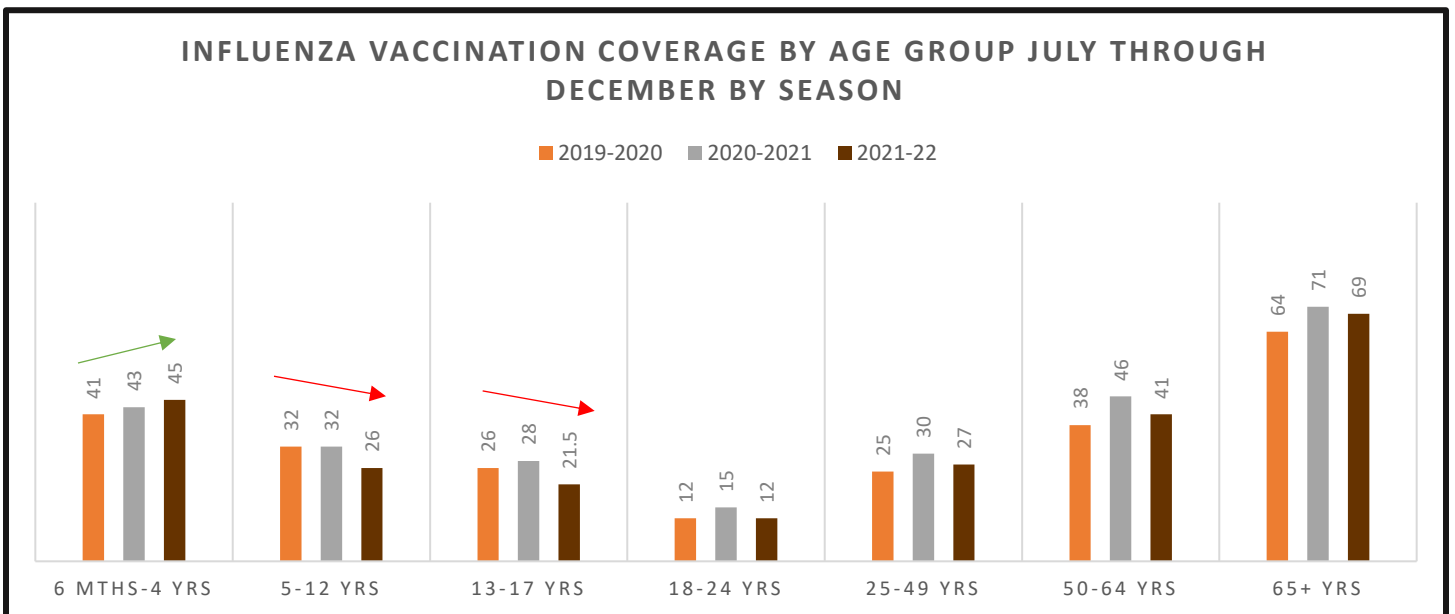

For the current 2021-22 Influenza Season, the Kalamazoo County coverage rate is highest among those age 65+ (69%) followed by the 6 mths-4 yrs (46%) and 50-64 (41%) age groups. The lowest coverage rate is in the 18-24 year group (12%).

Source : www.michigan.gov/flu; 2021-22 data is provisional and subject to change

Coverage by Age Group by Season

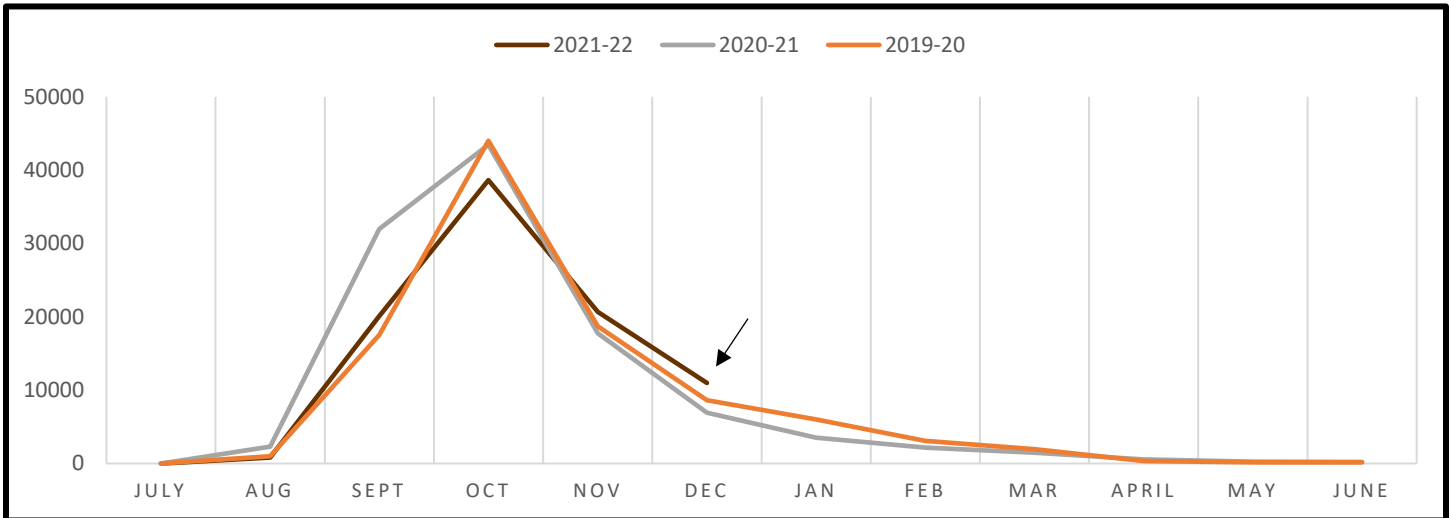

The current coverage rate for children age 6mths-4 years (46%) is higher compared to the past two flu seasons. However, the 5-17 year age groups are currently at lower vaccination rates compared to the past two flu seasons (2020-21 and 2019-20).

Source : www.michigan.gov/flu; 2021-22 data is provisional and subject to change

Administration Trends by Season

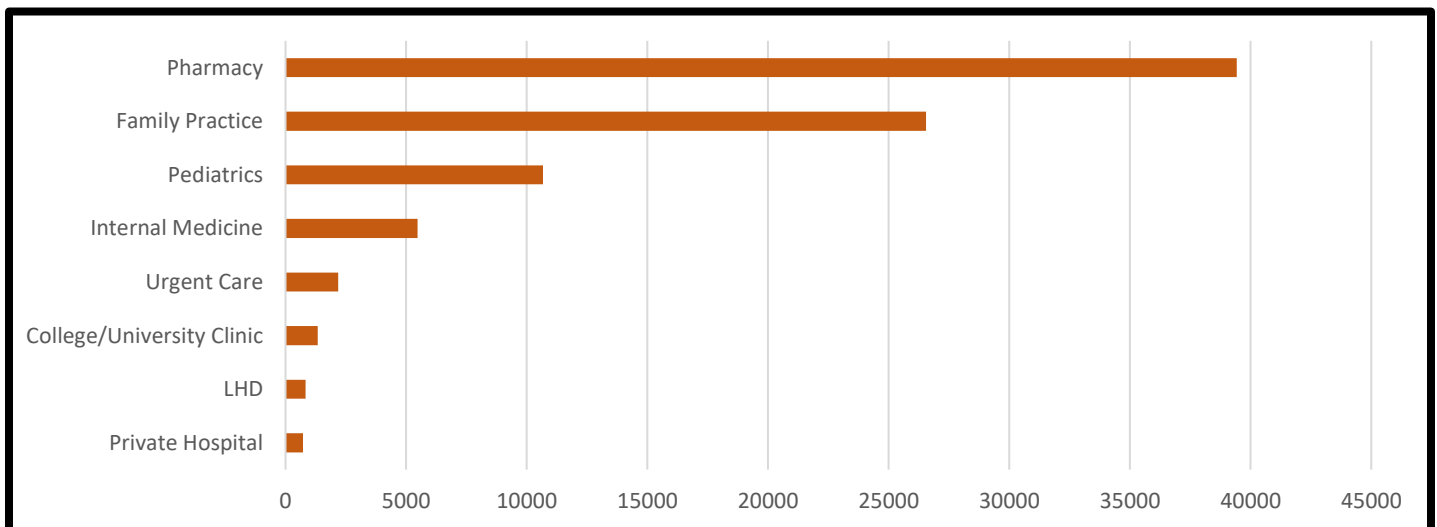

In the previous two flu seasons, the largest number of vaccines were administered to county residents during October and the number of vaccines administered monthly decreased for the remainder of the season. This trend has continued during the current flu season; but, a larger number of vaccines were administered during December 2021 compared to both December 2020 and December 2019.

Source : www.michigan.gov/flu; 2021-22 data is provisional and subject to change

Administration by Selected Provider Types*

For the current flu season the largest number of vaccines were administered to county residents by pharmacies, Family Practice, Pediatric, and Internal Medicine practices.

Source : www.michigan.gov/flu; *data not shown for all practice types or vaccination locations; 2021-22 data is provisional and subject to change

Kalamazoo County Health and Community Services Flu Vaccine Page

<https://www.kalcounty.com/hcs/flu vaccine/>