

GARNISH CHECKING, SAVINGS, or OTHER ACCOUNTS

The defendant's checking, savings, or other asset accounts can be garnished for unpaid restitution. To collect these types of assets, file the Request and Writ for Garnishment (non-Periodic) [SCAO Form MC 13] in the court that issued the Judgment of Sentence. Use the original criminal "Case Number". The criminal case judge must sign the form. You will need the defendant's account number(s), social security number, etc. Then, serve it on banking institutions (the garnishees) where the accounts are located. Use separate Form MC 13s for each banking institution. Serve the defendant, who has up to 14 days to file objections to the writ with the court. A "banking account" garnishment order is used once. If your restitution is still not fully paid, repeat the process by filing a new MC 13 form when you know or have good reason to believe that the bank account has been replenished.

There is no fee for the filing of the Request and Writ for Garnishment in the court. The Crime Victim's Rights Act provides that the court shall not impose a fee on a victim or victim's estate for enforcing an order of restitution. MCL 780.766(20).

SEIZE & SELL THE DEFENDANT'S ASSETS

To collect and sell physical assets, file a Request and Order to Seize Property form [SCAO MC 19]. The criminal case judge reviews and signs the order. Serve it on the defendant. Then, serve it on a court appointed officer (e.g., sheriff's civil division).

The court officer can seize the defendant's property and sell it at auction. The proceeds are given to the victim(s). Excess proceeds are returned to the defendant.

GARNISH MICHIGAN INCOME TAX REFUND or CREDIT

The defendant's Michigan income tax refund or credit can be garnished for unpaid restitution. To collect this type of income, file the Request and Writ for Garnishment (Income Tax/Credit) [SCAO Form MC 52] in the court that issued the Judgment of Sentence. Use the original criminal case number. The criminal case judge must sign the form. You will need the defendant's social security number. Then, serve it on the Michigan Department of Treasury (the garnishee) with a $6 fee. Serve the defendant, who has up to 14 days to file objections to the writ with the court. An income tax garnishment order is used once. If your restitution is still not fully paid, repeat the process. File a new MC 52 form for the next year's income tax refund. You may not garnish the defendant's federal or local income tax refunds or credits.

There is no fee for the filing of the Request and Writ for Garnishment in the court. The Crime Victim's Rights Act provides that the court shall not impose a fee on a victim or victim's estate for enforcing an order of restitution. MCL 780.766(20).

INTRODUCTION

At sentencing or disposition, the Court determines the restitution amount and must order full restitution to any victim (or to the victim's estate) of the defendant's course of conduct giving rise to a conviction or adjudication. Mich Const 1963, Art I, Sec 24 (1); MCL 780.766(2). Restitution must be a condition of probation or parole, and probation officers must review files twice a year regarding payments. MCL 780.766 (11), (18).

Still, not all restitution orders are paid in full during the defendant's term of probation. What can you do?

If your restitution order is not yet paid in full, you must be proactive to collect it. An order of restitution IS a civil judgment and is recordable as a lien against the defendant's property. You do not have to file a separate civil lawsuit unless you have damages or losses that are not covered by the restitution order (e.g., "pain & suffering"). MCL 780.766 (13). A criminal case order of restitution never expires until it is satisfied in full. MCL 780.766 (13). It is not dischargeable in bankruptcy. 11 USC 523(a)(6), (9) & 1328(a)(3).

This brochure will help you start to collect the remainder of restitution owed to you, and guide you to the forms used to attempt collection.

Please consult with a private attorney if you have further questions.

DISCOVERY OF ASSETS

Before you can begin self-help collection, you have to find out what assets the defendant has. Serve an Affidavit of Judgment Debtor [SCAO Form DC87], or file a Subpoena [SCAO Form MC 11] for a Judgment Debtor's Examination to find out what assets and income sources, debts, etc. the defendant has. Fill both sides of the Subpoena form out completely; include a list of documents he/she must bring to the hearing (e.g., vehicle titles, property deeds, bank records, pay stubs, tax returns, credit card records). Your criminal case judge must sign the subpoena. You are responsible to serve the defendant. At the scheduled hearing, the defendant must give you information about assets, income, etc. that become leads for your collection efforts.

RECORD THE LIEN

Record "certified copies" of the Judgment of Sentence and any separate Restitution Order at a county Register of Deeds where the defendant owns property. (You will need addresses and legal descriptions of the real property owned by the defendant.) The Judgment of Sentence acts as a lien against the defendant's real property, "clouds the title" of the property, and can be paid from the value of any of the real property when it is sold or transferred.

There will be a fee to obtain a certified copy of the Judgment of Sentence from the original criminal case's court clerk's office, and also a fee to record the document(s) at the Register of Deeds.

GARNISH WAGES OR OTHER INCOME

The defendant's wages (or other income paid to the defendant on a regular, periodic basis, like rent, land contract payments, etc.) can be garnished for unpaid restitution. To collect this type of income, file the Request and Writ for Garnishment (Periodic) [SCAO Form MC 12] in the court that issued the original Judgment of Sentence. Use the original criminal case "Case Number". The criminal case judge must sign the form. Then serve it on the defendant's employer (the garnishee). Serve the defendant, who has up to 14 days to file objections to the writ with the court. "Periodic" garnishment orders last for up to 91 days. If your restitution is still not fully paid, repeat the process by filing a new MC 12 form. There is no fee for filing the Request and Writ for Garnishment. The Crime Victim's Rights Act provides that the court shall not impose a fee on a victim or victim's estate for enforcing an order of restitution. MCL 780.766 (20).

NOTE:

Some forms of income are exempt from garnishment, including the first $500 on deposit in savings accounts, IRAs, Social Security, SSI, AFDC, General Assistance benefits, unemployment compensation benefits, and worker's compensation benefits.
