Kalamazoo County Youth Fair & Family Festival: 4-H, Education, and Family Entertainment

KALAMAZOO, Mich. – The Kalamazoo County Youth Fair & Family Festival begins tomorrow, showcasing 4-H programs and youth education, while offering a variety of entertainment and activities for children and families in the community.

The 4-H horse and livestock shows will occur Tuesday, Aug. 6, through Friday, Aug. 9. The public is welcome to attend the 4-H livestock auction, which will start with small animals and end with large animals on Friday. This will provide an opportunity for 4-H youth to sell their animals and earn money.

The fair will culminate in a family festival for the public on Saturday, Aug. 10, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., that will offer fun kid's entertainment and activities, including princess shows, superhero training, a magic show, reptile and exotic pet show, balloon artistry, performances by local dance studios, and much more. In addition, there will be an inflatable fun zone, climbing wall, farm games, food vendors, 4-H exhibits, hands-on demonstrations led by our 4-H youth, and plenty of educational activities.

The Kalamazoo County Youth Fair & Family Festival, held at the Kalamazoo County Expo Center & Fairground located at 2900 Lake St., is open Tuesday through Saturday, Aug. 6-10. Admission is $5 per vehicle Tuesday through Friday and $15 on Saturday.

For a complete schedule of times and events, please visit the Fair's website at www.kalamazoocountyfair.com.
